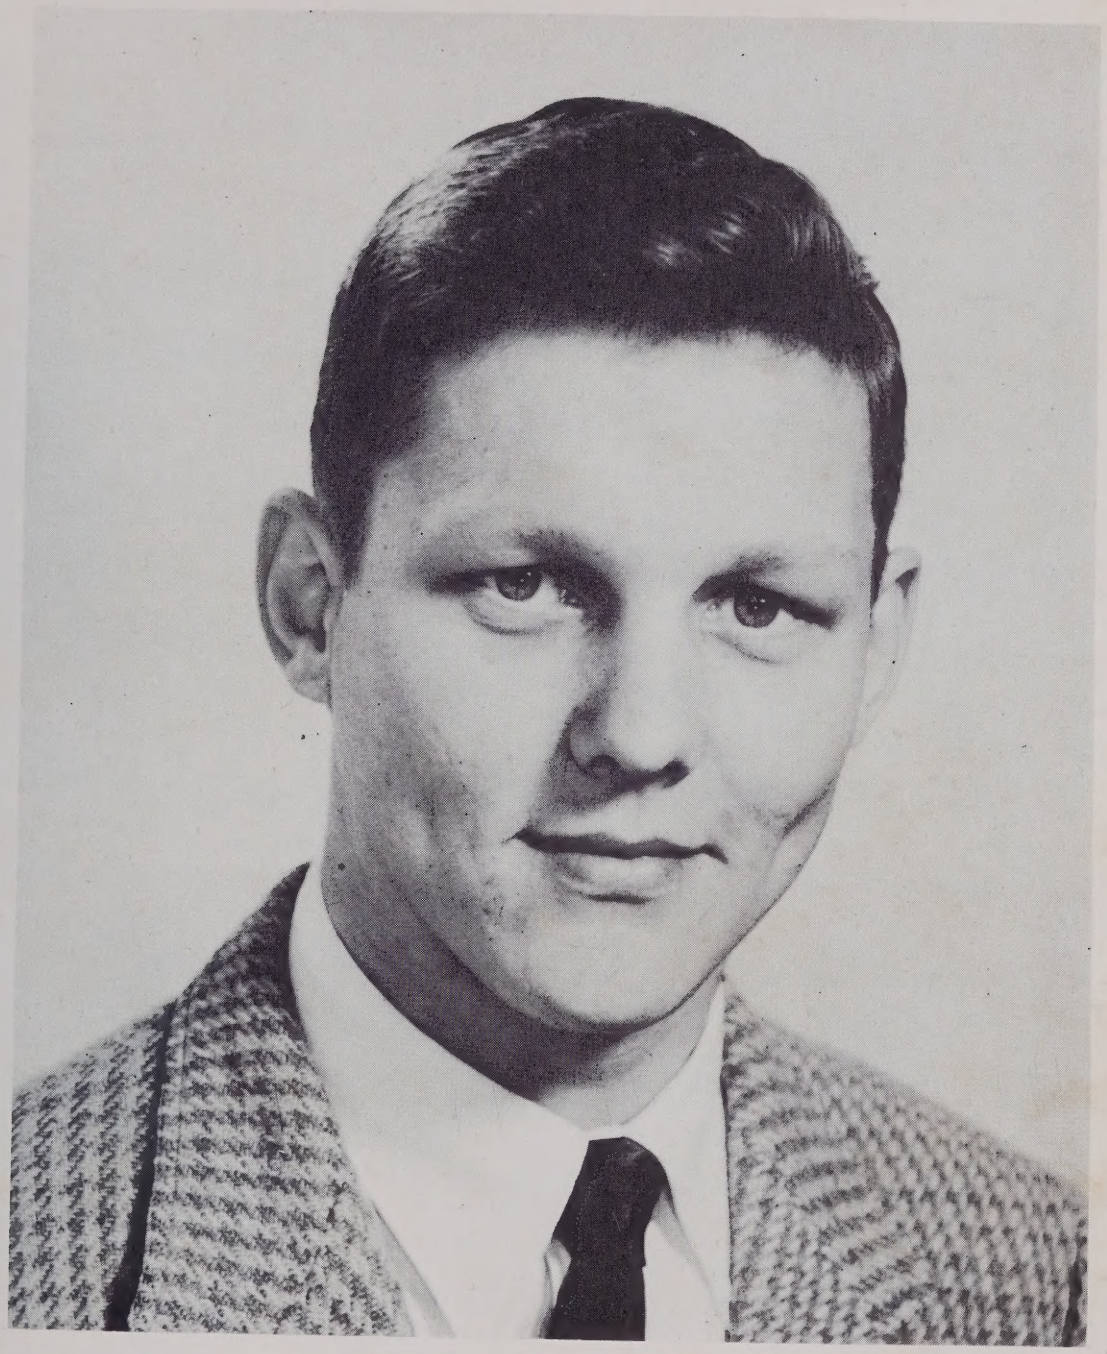
~ Preface ~

In this volume of Chapel Memories we are thinking along the line of peace and world activities. We are conscious of the fact that peace is a factor toward which we are all striving.

We have divided our annual into four basic parts. First we have the Faculty representing Yesterday. Second we are using the high school students as Today. Third we have the Elementary Grades looking to Tomorrow. In concluding we have the Clubs and Athletics representing World Activities.

May we pray for world peace and co-oporation among all nations and people, and do our part as students and citizens to bring this prayer into reality.



To Larry B. McCauley -
we, the Beta Club of '52, lovingly
dedicate this volume of Chapel Memories

In Appreciation

To Our Friends:

It would be extremely difficult to thank each of you in a full or sufficient manner for the very many kind things you have done for me and for my family.

The lovely cards and gifts were received gratefully. I sincerely believe that your prayers and the skillful hands of the physicians made our recovery a reality. My thanks and thoughts are expressed in these verses by Edgar A. Guest.

" I'd like to do the big things and the splendid things for you
To brush the gray from out your skies and leave them only blue;
I'd like to say the kindly things that I so oft have heard,
And feel that I could rouse your soul the way that mine you've stirred.

" I'd like to give you back the joy that you have given me,
Yet that were wishing you a need I hope will never be;
I'd like to make you feel as rich as I, who travel on Undaunted in the darkest hours with you to lean upon."

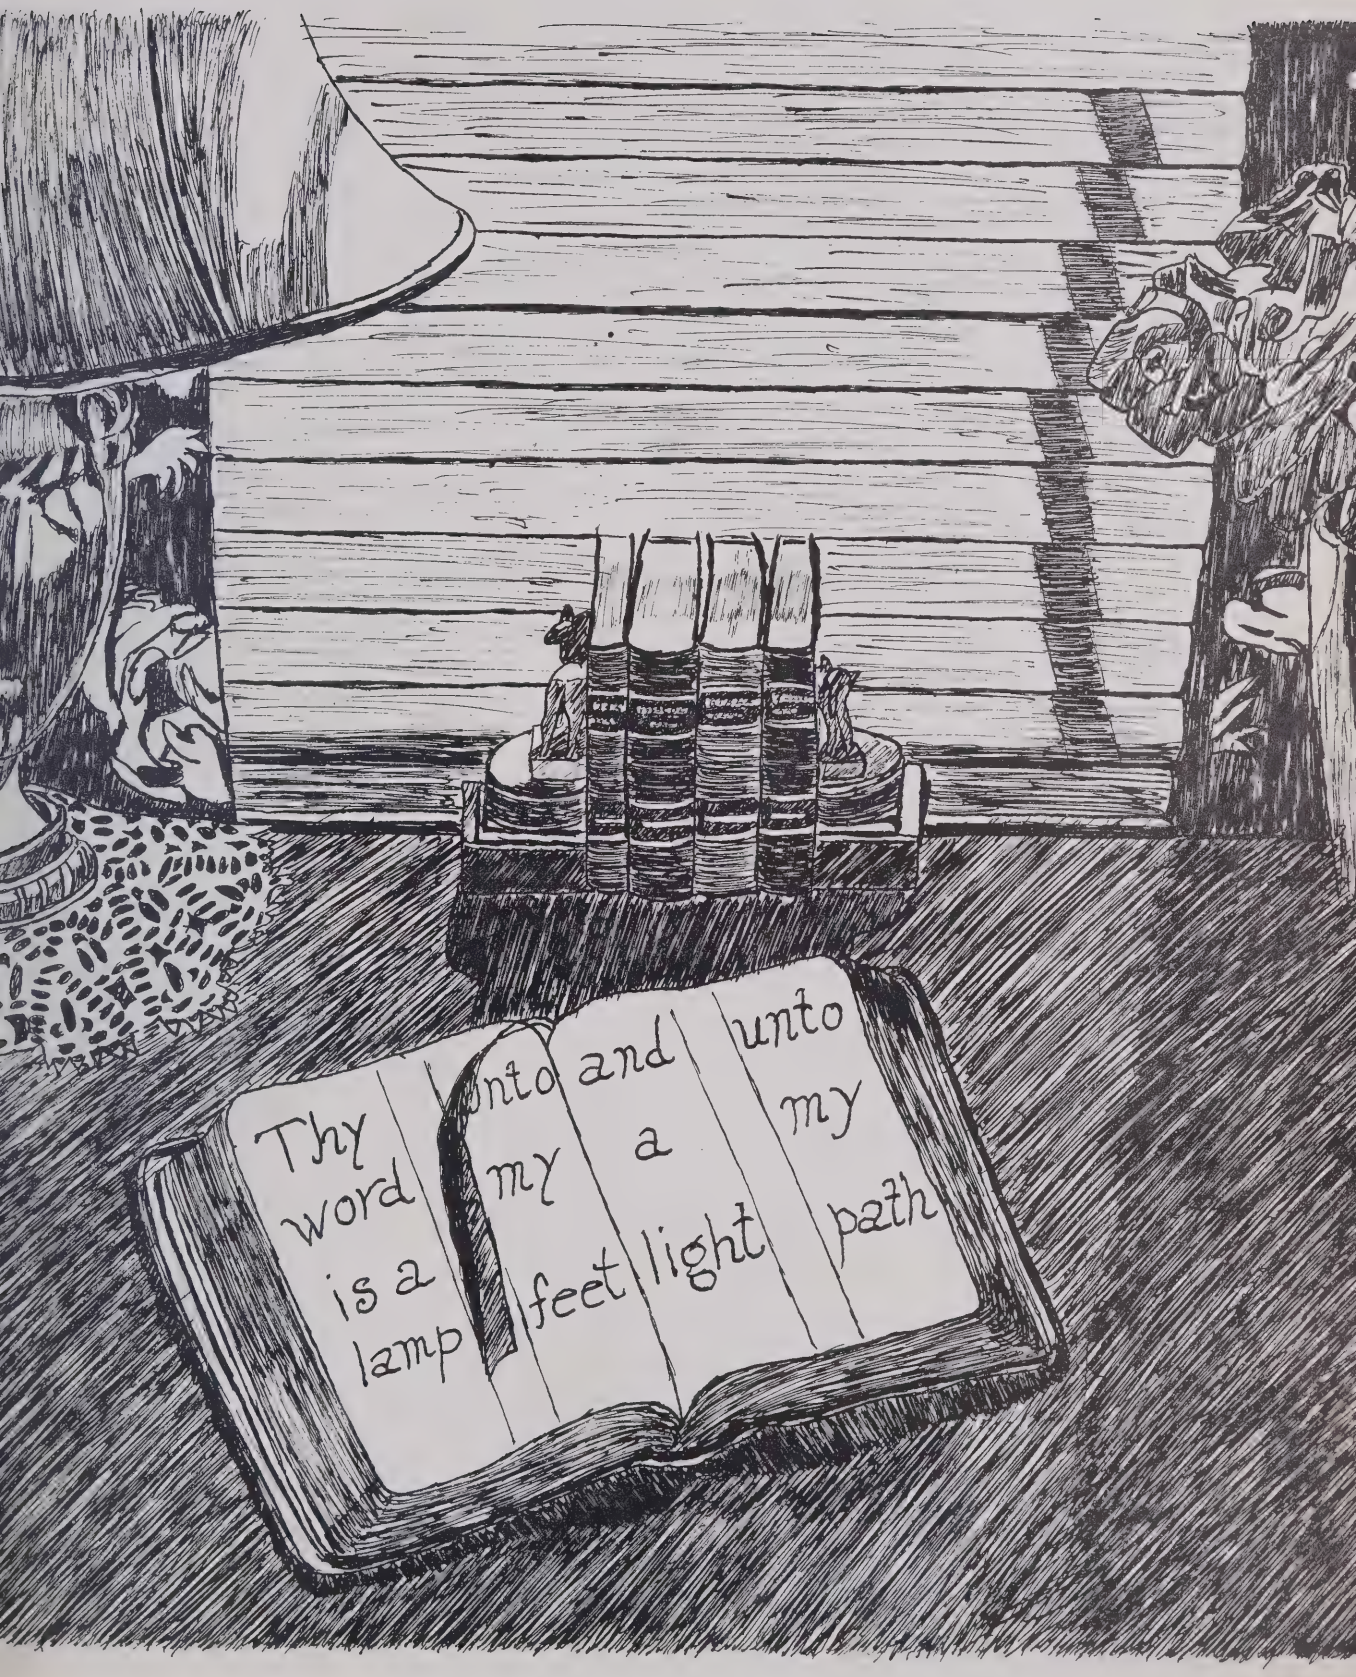
Very sincerely,

Sarah Pugh



Thy word is a lamp

Gray's Chapel High School

~ Senior's Appreciation ~

We, the Senior class, would like to express our appreciation to the faculty, students, and friends for their encouragement, help, and guidance during our twelve years at Gray's Chapel.

We know that in the future we shall look back with fond remembrance on our school days, and shall remember them as the happiest times of our lives. With the guidance we have received, we feel we shall be more capable of facing the future.

As we pass through these doors of our halls of Chapel, we wish again to thank you for your contribution to our lives.

The Seniors

~ The Halls Of Chapel ~

Oh, we love the halls of Chapel that surround us here today, and we will not forget tho' we be far, far away. To the hallowed halls of Chapel every voice will bid farewell, and shimmer off in twilight like the old Chapel bell.

One day a hush will fall, the foot steps of us all will echo down the hall and disappear; But as we sadly start our journey far apart - a part of every heart will linger here in the sacred halls of Chapel, where we've lived and learned to know that tho' the years we'll see you in the sweet after glow.

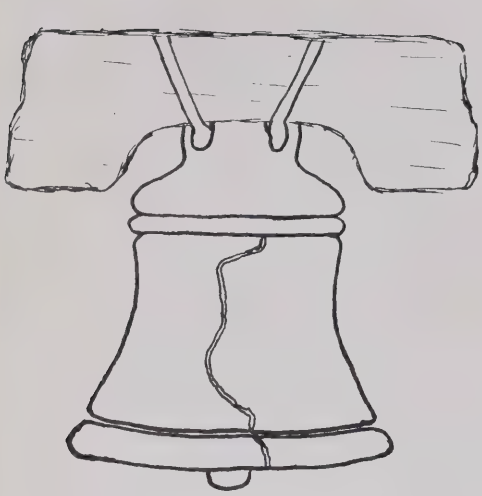
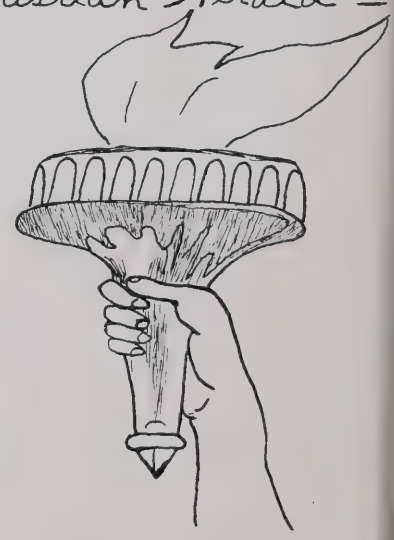
Yesterday



A teacher is one to whom a student may pour out all the contents of his heart, chaff and grain together, knowing that the gentlest of hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping and with a breath of kindness, blow the rest away.

— from Christian Herald —



Otus C. Thomas

To a man who contributes so much to so many. May we take these contributions out into life and share them with others in an effort to make a better and more peaceful community, nation, and world.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1940 we began our journey through school with approximately thirty-five members of which remains eight. These are Leroy, Ruby, Swannie, Lena, Ben, Mary, Wilma, and John. Mrs. Allen was our first guide who led us through the A B C's.

Upon entering the second grade we were getting used to school and Mrs. Straughn started us in the process of learning Arithmetic.

In the third grade we gained Ivan. Mrs. Swaim was our teacher and helped us survive the multiplication tables.

In the fourth and fifth grades we did our little part to win World War II by bringing scrap metal and scrap paper for these drives that were being carried on. In these grades we gained Irene, Louise, Allan, Eva Lou, and Arlie. Miss Buie was our teacher for these two years.

In the sixth grade we were blessed with two teachers, Miss Florence Baldwin and again Miss Buie. This year we claimed the unforgettable Travis and Worth.

In the seventh grade we were blessed with two teachers again which were Miss Swana Baldwin and Mrs. Pugh.

From the eighth grade our number increased too greatly to enumerate. Our social life increased as we went through school.

Mr. Thomas was always our willing guide through our school life.

We are now nearing the end of our journey through school, but we are looking forward to our new journey through life.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
    Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
    But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting;
    Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies;
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating;
    And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
    If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,
    And treat these two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
    Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools;
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
    And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
    And risk it on the turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
    And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
    To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
    Except the will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
    Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
    If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
    With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
    And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son.
